Breeding of cattle

* 386 Q.—SRI S. NAGARAJA MONIGAR: Will the Hon. the Minister for Home be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government have received any representation from the people of Hosur and Krishnagiri taluks that their breeding of cattle was greatly affected on account of Forest Department having taken over most of their grazing fields; and

(b) if so, the action taken thereon?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM: (a) & (b) Representations were received by the District Forest Officer, Salem North, in general from the villagers in almost all places where estates and panchayat forests were taken over by the Forest Department expressing their difficulties in grazing their cattle. The petitioners were informed by the District Forest Officer, Salem North, that all the estates and panchayat forests taken over by the Forest Department are open to grazing for all animals except goats, after taking necessary grazing permits from the Forest Department. The villagers who have taken out permits are being allowed to graze their cattle.
